To

The weathercock turns every way the wind blows, but the successful merchant must have a settled policy. He must follow it without flinch-ing.

Our policy is the selling of the best groceries we can find. Of course the prices of such goods must be higher than of imitation brands but there are enough people in Hawaii who know the difference.

We appeal to those who know.

REVISION OF DREYFUS CASE

Paris, May 27.—Today the president of the civil section of the Court of Cassation, M. Ballot-Beaupre, reported to the president of the united Court of Cassation, M. Mazeau, in favor of a revision of the Dreyfus trial and of sending the prisoner again before a court martial. It is believed that the report is practically certain to be accepted by the Court of Cassation, which means that Dreyfus will be brought back to France and retried.

Paris, May 31.—The vicinity of the Palace of Justice was almost deserted today when the Court of Cassation resumed the hearing of the arguments on the application for a revision of the Dreyfus trial.
Many of the public seats in the court were empty.

M. Mazeau, the Procureur General, continued his speech, which was interrupted yesterday by the adjournment of the court.
He contended that Major Count Esterhazy was the author of the bordereau which has figured so prominently in the case, and not Dreyfus. In the course of his remarks, he said that whoever was guilty, somebody had committed the crime of treason. Esterhazy, however, he pointed out, having been acquitted of the authorship of the bordereau, cannot again be prosecuted on this ground, even if he were a hundred times guilty.

Later M. Mazeau said:
"What proof exists that there has been an act of treason of a nature tending to compromise the security of the State? Are we not, perhaps, in the presence of a number of unimportant documents, as General Mercier thought, and, consequently, in the presence of a mysterious box, an audacious piece of swindling perpetrated by the author of the bordereau upon his foreign correspondent? This is a terrible question and one which involves the most painful presumption—that of the martyrdom of a man whose innocence seems established by several new facts."

Associated Charities.
The adjourned annual meeting of the Associated Charities was held in the Safe Deposit yesterday afternoon.

President Dole reported that at his invitation several of the leading business men of the city had met together and, after approving of the scheme of the Associated Charities, contributed quite a large sum of money. Miss Harriet Lewers was appointed to solicit funds from business houses and individuals, and Mrs. Dole, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Osborne were appointed a committee to canvass for annual members.

The matter of election of officers was finished and the result is as follows: Sanford B. Dole, president; Mrs. Andrew Fuller, first vice-president; Rev. Alex Mackintosh, second vice-president, and Mrs. J. M. Whitney, secretary.

THE BREW OF OLYMPUS.

THE "HOFFMAN," corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets, claims to be the "Banner" resort for gentlemen and holds the flag. L. H. Dee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by specially supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co.," of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the "Garonne." Mr. Schmidt, the leading spirit of this corporation is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar virtues of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities.
Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olympia Draught" is under the special control and agency of Mr. Dee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

During the summer of 1891, Mr.
Chas. P. Johnson, a well known attorney of Louisville, Ky., had a very severe attack of summer complaint. Quite a number of different remedies were tried, but failed to afford any relief. A friend who knew what was needed procured him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which quickly cured him and he thinks, saved his life. He says that there has not been a day since that time that he has not had this remedy in his household. He speaks of it in the highest praise and takes much pleasure in recommending it whenever an op-
